MINUTES OF SA COUNCIL MEETING
May 1, 1963

The meeting was opened with a prayer by Sid Tate. The minutes were read and approved. The roll was called; those absent were: Norman Tubb, Tommie Jones, Linda Graff, Carroll Osburn, Jenette Buchanan, Becky Martin, Lynn Rhodes, and Mary Ethel Bales.

It was moved that the SA purchase a bound volume of newspapers from four colleges (to be chosen by next year's president) for four back years. These papers will be used by next year's Council. Lott Tucker will be authorized to pay for them.

Trophies for the Homecoming Parade will be ordered immediately and will be awarded May 21, Awards Day.

It was moved that the SA plan to purchase a cinemascope screen and lens immediately; the SA for next year will plan to pay the balance. (The new SA can select movies over the summer in view of the fact that they will have this screen.) The financial details will be worked out by the next meeting. Joel Anderson is to determine how much money will be necessary at the beginning of next year so it can be arranged as to how much money is allotted this year for those activities and for the new screen.

It was moved that the out-going and in-coming SA Councils have the traditional steak supper at Wyldewood. Jenette Buchanan will be asked to take charge of the food.

The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
